

Airbus A321 Aircraft restitution & repossession

Our Client:

A West African flag carrier operating an Airbus A321 on dry lease

Background:

Negotiations with the aircraft lessor for the early termination of the lease agreement due to restrictions imposed on the aircraft operations by the lessor.

Our Achievements:

We successfully negotiated lifting of restrictions and for the lease to be extended. Thus avoiding both the airline and the lessor a costly early aircraft restitution.

Note: This project was not directly performed under The Sharpwings© banner but conducted by the Principals