

A321 Restitution

Appointed by a West African flag carrier, operating an Airbus A321, to negotiate the early termination of the lease agreement due to restrictions imposed on the aircraft operations by the lessor.

Our team successfully negotiated lifting of restrictions and for the lease to be extended.

Our solution driven approach allied to our recognised negotiating skills and attention to detail avoided both the airline and the lessor a costly early aircraft restitution.